S. C. HUNTINGTON,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR-AT-LAW,
PULASKI, N. Y.

Pulaski, N. Y., Sept. 5 1901.

Messrs. Chapman,

Gentlemen:- I find the inclosed among my coins, but have not the means of knowing its age or exact location. If you can handle it, I wish you would send me what it is reasonably worth, either in cash, or in silver half dollars, or U. S. half cents as you prefer.

Awaiting your further pleasure and having entire confidence in you
I remain

Yours very truly,

S. C. Huntington
